

ICT4Dev: Supporting Development Digitally

Making best use of Digitalisation

Your Needs = Our Solution

For many years APPLICATIO supports the use of digital tools and media and digital, networked work as well as digitally supported learning with its eService department.

APPLICATIO's eService supports projects, project financiers, NGOs and experts in using digital instruments and strategies. A different approach has become a must today.

APPLICATIO attaches great importance to the fact that digitalisation is always a social process and requires an adaptation of people and not only a technical solution.

Our Experience = Your Advantage

APPLICATIO is specialised in:

- Coordination and Communication: APPLICATIO supports in the area of maintaining communication (meetings, stakeholder management, consultations etc.) amongst others
- Processes and Cooperation: APPLICATIO supports in the area of project coordination, digitisation of processes and the conversion of coordination to digital methods.
- Learning and Innovation: APPLICATIO supports in the field of Capacity Development.

Support include:

- Situation and needs-analysis
- Strategy and concept development
- Technical implementation
- Identification of tools and instruments
- Installation, adaptation, training and operation

Tools:

Often existing tools are used which can often be used free of charge and do not require installation but just want to be used properly (Zoom, #Slack, Mobilize, Social Media, Google etc.) or Free-and-Open-Source Software and existing installations of APPLICATIO (Limesurvey, Moodle, Joomla!, Wordpress, Group-Office, OSTicket, OwnCloud etc.): the country.

This offer/service represents an example. All services of APPLICATIO are generally tailor-made based on the individual needs of the clients.
